

CORRECTED FISCAL NOTE

SB 2578 - HB 2618

February 14, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases the maximum allowable for losses resulting from criminal acts under the Criminal Injury Compensation law from $12,000 to $18,000 and the maximum allowable supplemental award from $8,000 to $12,000.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

The fiscal impact in our original fiscal note of February 7 remains the same. However, the assumption that increased payments from the criminal injury compensation fund could result in increased premiums charged to state departments and result in additional expenditures to the general fund was incorrect. This statement has now been deleted.

Increase State Expenditures - Exceeds $100,000/Criminal Injury Compensation Fund

Estimate assumes:

- an increase in benefit payments from the criminal injury compensation fund. Using the number of claims paid out through 12/31/99, that reached the maximum amount as defined by the bill, it is estimated that approximately $180,000 in additional benefits would be paid annually under the provisions of this bill.
